Council met in regular session.
Present Councilmen Hubbard, Elser, Moore and Powell.
On motion council adjourned until December 15, 1915.
Attest: Jno. Pyle, City Clerk.
Tom Dillon, Sr., Mayor.

Hickman, Ky., Dec. 15, 1915.
Council met pursuant to adjournment of the 6th. Present Mayor, Tom Dillon; Hubbard, Isler, Powell, Plant and Moore.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and on motion approved and signed.

On motion the bill presented by Jack Newton for damages to house for $150 was tabled until the next regular meeting night.

The following ordinance which was originally introduced at the last regular meeting, Nov. 1, 1915, was read, and on motion passed by the affirmative vote of all the councilmen present.

Ordinance is as follows:

The City Council of the City of Hickman, Ky., do ordain as follows:

Whereas the City Council of the City of Hickman, Ky., have deemed it necessary to incur an indebtedness in the sum of seven thousand and one hundred ($7,100) dollars, the payment of which can be made by the tax levy authorized under the general law, and having given due and legal notice of an election by the qualified voters of the town, to be held on the 2nd day of November, 1915, to determine whether said indebtedness shall be incurred. Said notice having been published in the Hickman Courier a newspaper published in said city of Hickman, for at least two weeks prior to said election, in words and figures as follows:

"Notice is hereby given to the qualified voters of the City of Hickman, Ky., that an election will be held in said city on Tuesday, November 2nd, 1915, same being regular election day for said city, for the purpose of determining the desire of said voters upon the following issue:

"Are you in favor of the City of Hickman, Ky., issuing bonds amounting to sum of $7,100, due in ten years from date and bearing interest from date at the rate of six per cent per annum, it being necessary to raise annually, by a special tax levy, the sum of $1,200 for interest and a sinking fund to retire said bonds at their maturity?"

Also whereas, upon a canvas of the votes cast at such election said bonds containing the words and figures as stated in the above notice, it appearing that two-thirds of all the qualified electors were in favor of said election.

Therefore the City Council of the City of Hickman, do ordain that the debt of $7,100 be incurred for the purposes and in the manner herein and above provided; that a special tax levy of 12 cents per hundred dollars upon all real and personal property in said city, the sum of $1,200 per annum, which sum to constitute all interest and a sinking fund to retire said bonds at their maturity.

Therefore the City Council of the City of Hickman, do ordain that the debt of $7,100 be incurred for the purposes and in the manner herein and above provided; that a special tax levy of 12 cents per hundred dollars upon all real and personal property in said city, the sum of $1,200 per annum, which sum to constitute all interest and a sinking fund to retire said bonds at their maturity.

Therefore, it is ordered and ordained that the City of Hickman, Ky., issue bonds in the sum of $7,100 for the purpose of purchasing a Motor Chemical and Pumping Engine, ladders, hose and other fire protection apparatus. Said bonds to be sold to the highest and best bidder, upon the following terms, and in the following manner, after due advertising of same in the Hickman Courier, or in any other manner which will increase publicity of said notice, and the City Clerk of said city is hereby ordered and commanded to publish said notice, as follows:

Bonds will bear six per cent interest, be of $500 denomination, and mature in ten years (10) from date.

Sealed proposals will be received by Tom Dillon, Sr., Mayor, until December 15, 1915, at eight o'clock p.m.

Bonds to bear date of January 1, 1916, and mature Jan. 1, 1926. Principal and interest payable at Hickman Bank & Trust Co., Hickman, Ky.

Bonds are issued pursuant to Sec. No. 36.7, Sub. Sec. No. 3, Carroll's Ed. 1909 Kentucky Statutes.

Bonds certified by Tom Dillon, Sr., Mayor, and counter signed by Jno. Pyle, City Clerk, and legally approved by Thos. R. Powell, City Attorney, City of Hickman, Ky.
